

2011 Recycled Yard Art Winners

Hillsborough County Cooperative Extension and the Hillsborough County Fair sponsored the Recycled Yard Art Contest which was held at the Hillsborough County Fairgrounds from Wednesday, October 12 through Sunday, October 16, 2011. This event was open to all County residents. Entries were created mostly with recycled or recyclable materials and to withstand the elements for outdoor display.

A panel of judges voted for first, second and third place winners. All who viewed the art voted for the People's Choice Award. The results are:

First Place Adult: Myrtle Cail for her Window Jewelry.

Second Place Adult: Jacqueline Easter for her Garden Accent Screen.

Third Place Adult: Garry Swartz for his Scrapasaurus.

High School First Place: Nichols Fernandez for his Frankenstein.

Middle School First Place: Dowdell Middle School for their Incredible Shrunken Heads.

Middle School Second Place: Ethan Fernandez for his Red Angry Bird.

Middle School Third Place: Amber Boykin for her Welded Baton Twirler.

People's Choice Award: Jim Dreby for his Pig Flower Pot Holder.

Congratulations to all who entered the contest for their creativity. Remember Reduce, Reuse, Recycle!
